I did a lot of travelling in the last couple of months and stayed at different motels.

The providers of Mid-Jersey Pediatrics believe that vaccines are an essential component of maintaining a child's health.

I'm not wearing foundation, that's how they can deal with mineral sunscreens.

Most of these studies included people who were transfused in the 1970s and, within months afterward, were found to have developed post-transfusion hepatitis C.